Note: To use HandsFreeLink™, your phone must have approved Bluetooth capability along with the Hands Free Profile.

These approved phones have been tested and approved in accordance with HandsFreeLink interoperability standards. Honda Canada is not responsible for irregular software or hardware issues these phones may experience that are outside of our testing scope.

Please check with your wireless carrier for phone availability and network compatibility, as some carriers may not support compatibility with HandsFreeLink.

This compatible phone list is updated regularly. The last update occurred on 12/2/2008.
